<sup>2</sup> Through and including the August 2001 application, Day Pitney's fee requests have related only to three (3) matters for which Day Pitney was retained as special counsel to the Debtors. Following discussions with the Office of the United States Trustee and counsel for Debtors, going forward Day Pitney will include in its fee applications all matters in which Day Pitney represents the Debtors either as special counsel or an ordinary course professional.

2. By this Court's order dated May 30, 2001 (the Retention Order), the Debtors were authorized to retain Day Pitney as special counsel, effective as of the Petition Date, with regard to the following three (3) matters, more particularly described in the application filed in support of such retention: (a) In re Intercat, Inc.; (b) Maryland Cas. v. W. R. Grace & Co., et al.; and (c) Gloucester New Communities Company, Inc. v. Del Monte Corporation, et al.

3. The Retention Order authorizes the Debtors to compensate Day Pitney at Day Pitney's hourly rates, which are being charged for services of this type and to be reimbursed for actual and necessary out-of-pocket expenses that it incurred, subject to application to this Court in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, all applicable local rules, and orders of this Court. A copy of the Retention Order is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

As disclosed in the Affidavit of Anthony J. Marchetta in Support of Application of the Debtors for the Entry of an Order Authorizing the Retention and Employment of Pitney, Hardin, Kipp & Szuch LLP as Special Counsel to the Debtors (the "Marchetta Affidavit"), Day Pitney does not hold or represent any interest adverse to the Debtors' estates with respect to the matters on which Day Pitney is to be employed.

4. Day Pitney may have in the past represented, may currently represent, and likely in the future will represent, parties-in-interest in connection with matters unrelated to the Debtors and the Chapter 11 Cases. Day Pitney disclosed in the Marchetta Affidavit its connections to parties-in-interest that it has been able to ascertain using its reasonable efforts. Day Pitney will update the Marchetta Affidavit when necessary and when Day Pitney becomes aware of material new information.

5. Day Pitney performed the services for which it is seeking compensation on behalf of or for the Debtors and their estates, and not on behalf of any committee, creditor or other person.

This is the thirtieth quarterly application for interim compensation for services rendered that Day Pitney has filed with the Bankruptcy Court in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases.

Reasonable and Necessary Services Rendered by Day Pitney

8. Day Pitney submits this Application pursuant to the Retention Order seeking approval of: (a) compensation in the amount of $50,136.50 for the reasonable and necessary legal services Day Pitney has rendered as special counsel to the Debtors in this Chapter 11 case during the Fee Period, which amount includes 80% of the fees already approved from prior monthly fee applications; and (b) reimbursement in the amount of $470.84 for the actual and necessary expenses that Day Pitney incurred in the rendition of required professional services on behalf of the Debtors, which amount has been paid in accordance with prior fee applications.

records were generated contemporaneously with the performance of the professional services described therein and in the ordinary course of Day Pitney's practice. The individual time records were recorded by the attorney or legal assistant who rendered the particular services described. 10. Day Pitney also maintains records of all necessary expenses and disbursements (collectively, the "Expenses") incurred by Day Pitney in connection with the performance of its services. Attached hereto as Exhibit "C" is a complete breakdown of all the Expenses incurred during the Fee Period.

11. Bankruptcy Code Section 330 authorizes bankruptcy courts to award professionals employed by the Debtors under Bankruptcy Code Section 327 "reasonable compensation" for actual and necessary services rendered to the Debtors by such professionals. Under Bankruptcy Code section 330, the reasonableness of the compensation sought by a professional is determined by consideration of the nature, extent and value of such services, taking into account, inter alia, the following: (a) the time spent on such services; (b) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the task; and (c) the cost of comparable services for non-bankruptcy cases.

12. Day Pitney respectfully submits that the professional services which it has rendered and the Expenses that it has incurred on behalf of the Debtors were necessary and have resulted in substantial benefits to the Debtors. Set forth below is a summary of the services provided by Day Pitney to the Debtors during the Fee Period. Based upon an analysis of each of the foregoing, Day Pitney respectfully submits that the compensation sought in this Application is reasonable.

Services Rendered

14. A detailed summary of the engagement costs incurred for each of the above-noted matters is set forth in Exhibit "C."

Representations

15. Day Pitney believes that the Application is in compliance with the requirements of Del.Bankr.LR 2016-2.

16. Although every effort has been made to include all fees and expenses from the Fee Period in the Application, some fees and expenses from the Fee Period might not be included in the Application due to accounting and processing delays. Day Pitney reserves the right to make further application to the Court for allowance of fees and expenses for the Fee Period not included herein.

17. In summary, by this Application, Day Pitney requests approval for compensation of fees and expenses in the total amount of $50,607.34 consisting of: (a) $50,136.50 for reasonable and necessary professional services rendered during the Fee Period, which amount includes 80% of the fees already approved from prior monthly fee applications; and (b) $470.84 for actual and necessary costs and expenses, which amount has already been approved from prior fee applications.

WHEREFORE, Day Pitney respectfully requests that the Court approve an award to Day Pitney of 100% of the reasonable and necessary professional services Day Pitney has rendered to the Debtors during the Fee Period, including the 80% already received on an interim basis by way of monthly fee applications and 100% reimbursement of the actual and necessary costs and expenses incurred by Day Pitney during the Fee Period. Day Pitney respectfully requests further that all awarded fees and expenses be paid as administrative expenses of the Debtors' estates and that this Court grant such further relief as is equitable and just.
